THE LATEST NEWS.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE 46th CONGRESS.

Adjournment of the Senate—But Little Business Transacted in the House—Miscellaneous Notes.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 25.—The House refused to dispense with the morning hour.

Robertson, of Louisiana, said yesterday he had voted for McLane's proposition for the purpose of burying the Townshend bill before the House. Had he understood certain decisions of the Speaker he would have voted against the proposition because he was not protectionist.

McLane—By what right does the gentleman give any such significance to the vote? I, for one, utterly repel and repudiate any such significance. There was no such significance in that vote.

The Speaker then proceeded to call the committees for reports of a private nature.

After a long debate on the bill to extend the patent on the Shoe Pegging Machine, the morning hour expired, and the House, without acting on the bill, went into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar. The first bill taken up was that for the relief of L. Madison Day, of Louisiana, on account of the property in New Orleans purchased by him from the United States with a defective title. Mr. O'Connor, of South Carolina, spoke at length in favor of the bill, and Mr. Hammond, of Georgia, made a long argument against it. Without disposing of the bill, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

CHILIAN WAR.

PANAMAR, March 26.—On the 25th of February a Chilian force of eight or ten thousand men with six hundred cavalry and plenty of artillery landed at the port of Pacchea, sixty miles north of Arica and went into camp. On the same day three thousand Chilians occupied the village of Vivor, twenty miles south of Pacocha and communication was opened between the two camps. Two Chilian ironclads at the same time made a demonstration against, at Arica by sea but were roughly handled by Monitor Monco Capac and withdrew. The effect of the attack on Arica was to keep General Montero occupied so that no opposition could be made to Chilians landing further north. It is believed a simultaneous naval and land attack will soon be made on Arica in force and the result thereof is awaited at Lima with much anxiety. The Chilians in their present position can cut off all supplies and reinforcements from Arica and General Montero's situation is critical.

Foreign Affairs.

LONDON, March 26.—Lord Harlington, a liberal leader, speaking at Padinam, Lincolnshire last night pointed out in what respects the policy of the opposition if returned to power would differ from the policy of the present government. He said they would not stake the interests or honor of England on the maintenance of the independence and integrity of an unreformed Turkish government. They would not treat the relations of the Turkish government with its christian subjects as matter of the interest only to Russia and Turkey. They would not try to disturk the concert of Europe if it was united as to what should be done, they would do all in their power to promote that concert.

The Times in a leading editorial this morning commenting on the above says: "Lord Harlington in discussing the Eastern policy of the government avows that his criticisms are designed, not merely to discredit a minister, but to indicate what would have been his policy in past and its tendency in the future. It would be policy of coercing Turkey at cost if necessary of war, announcement of such policy seems to deprive the opposition speakers of all the right to announce the government for undertaking distant and ardurous enterprises."

REPUBLICAN AFFAIRS.

GALVESTON, March 26.—In the Republican convention at Austin yesterday a resolution instructing the delegates to Chicago to vote for Grant were bitterly opposed. It was finally agreed to instruct the delegates to vote as a unit. This was at once accepted by the Grant men as equivalent to instructions and was adopted. Governor Davis was elected one of the delegates at large.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—The Republican anti-third term committee has adopted a call for a National mass convention to meet in St. Louis May 6th, to the end that a national organization may be perfected through which the proper expression of the will of the people against the principle of a third Presidential term may be secured, with a view to limiting, by constitutional amendment, the Executive tenure. The call recites the patriotic precedent of Washington and his successors, and the declaration of Jefferson that "If some termination to the services of the Chief Magistrate be not fixed by the constitution or supplied by practice, his office nominally for years will, in fact, become for life." It cordially approves the declarations of the Pennsylvania State Republican Convention in 1875; also that of New York against a third term, and deprecates the evident purpose of a faction of the Republican party to secure the re election of Grant, thereby endangering the success of the party, and threatening to subvert the policies hitherto regarded as safeguards of our institutions.

SUCCESSFUL STRIKE.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Steinways have also yielded partially to the strikers demands and the men are expected to return to work to-day at an advance of ten per cent. on former wages. Hale and Weber are now the only firms who are yet out.

DEVILTRY.

PETERSBURG, March 26.—A bold attempt was made last night to wreck the southern bound passenger train from the north between Weldon and Halifax, N. C., by placing rails on the track, the train was delayed an hour but there were no serious results.

RUSSIAN MATTERS.

NEW YORK, March 26.—A London dispatch says the Dugsbury Gazette asserts that the pending trouble between Russia & China is entirely due to English influence at Pekin. Nord, of Brussels, refuses to believe the report until it is confirmed, but maintains that if China should enter into hostile league against Russia. She will receive a lesson that will cost her Kuldja and England will have a new chagrin at seeing Russia strengthened in her hold upon the frontier of China.

MONEY ON THE BRAIN.

ST. LOUIS, March 26.—Jacob Frey, 69 years old, cut his wife's throat about noon to day. He then cut his own throat. Neither was dead at last accounts, but it is probable both will die. The affair grew out of a quarrel about money.

GOING TO WORK.

BAYONNE, N. J., March 26.—The striking coopers of the Standard Oil Company have at last agreed to resume work.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

LAKE CHARLES, March 26.—The gap between Lake Charles and Orange, Texas, on the Louisiana & Western Railroad, was closed to-day. A locomotive left here this morning and arrived at Orange at 1 o'clock p. m. About ten days will be required for surfacing the road bed, before the passenger trains will run from Houston to Lake Charles COMMITTED SUICIDE.

COLUMBUS, March 26.—E. M. Marcus, a young man of this city, committed suicide to-day by taking strychnine and shooting himself through the head. No cause is assigned for the act.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN QUERNEY.

BOSTON, March 26.—Captain Henry Querney, one of the oldest and best known pilots in the country died this morning, aged 90. He was in the fight between the Shannon and Chesapeake.

MEETING OF TAMMANY STATE COMMITTEE.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The Tammany State committee met in secret session at St. Nicholas hotel to-day. The executive committee was authorized to name the time and place for holding the convention. The general feeling of politicians present seemed to be in favor of the convention nominee, and is utterly opposed to Tilden. The country members however advised that the proceedings be deliberate and safe.

RAILROAD MATTER.

NEW YORK, March 26.—In the suit of E. S. Dakin against Union Pacific, Kansas Pacific, and Denver Pacific railway, et al to compel transfer of the stock and enjoin the payment of dividends, Judge Blatchford to-day denied a motion for an injunction.

GLADSTONE'S SPEECH.

LONDON, March 26.—A dispatch from Berlin to the Standard says: Mr. Gladstone's recent speech at Edinburgh against Austria, is the theme of endless ridicule in the German press. The idea of calling Russia a friend of liberty at this moment is declared to be so utterly unintelligible as to defy all attempts at reasonable explanation.

Spinners on a Strike.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The spinners of the ex ensive Harmony Mills at Cohoes, New York, are on a strike, and the weavers to-day held a meeting and threatened to strike in a body Monday unless the spinners demands are acceded to before that time. Both sides are determined, and are preparing for a long lock out.

Too Heavy for Activity.

New York Tribune.

The painful effort of the David Davis boom to set itself a going reminds one of the fruitless kicking of Mr. Smiley's frog after he had been filled with fine shot.

The News of the Period.

Philadelphia Times.

All the friends of all the candidates for the presidency agree that they are all sweeping everything before them. News like this is just what the country is lying in wait for now.

He Can't Come to Time.

New York World.

Mr. Tilden seems to have been sent to grass very effectually in the first round in Pennsylvania. We shall soon see if there is really any power behind the throne.

The Giant Monopoly.

Cleveland Voice.

The Western Union Telegraph Company is said to have a strong lobby just now at Columbus. It needs it; the American Union is a lively organization, and it seems to be whooping it up with great energy just now. Western Union stock has dropped seven points in a week, and "murderer's row" in Wall street, is said to be discouraged.

A Conflict of Opinions.

New York Tribune.

"Poor harassed Kemper county needs peace." This is the plaintive wail of the bullbozers' organ, deprecating any further prosecutions for murder. What Kemper county needs is an energetic hangman with plenty of rope.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGES.

Brown, of Mecklenburg, rose to correct a typographical error in report of yesterday. His amendment was to substitute $1000 in lieu of $1500 in the resolution appropriating to the Kings Mountain centennial. It was so reported by the Reporter and was merely a typographical error.

Atkinson here rose to a question of personal privilege in reference to an article in the Raleigh Observer respecting a meeting held in Asheville wherein his actions in reference to the Railroad bill was criticised.

He wished to refer to certain proceedings published in this morning's Observer, relative to a public meeting in Asheville. He did not believe that there was a man in this body who was so ignorant as not to understand that his opposition to the Best Railroad Bill was only to correct any evils it might contain, and to secure such guarantees as he believed the whole State expected and would demand. Never before it was evident that his people had been informed that he was opposed to the bill. He here denounced any such news or information from this place to his people as an absolute falsehood, let it come from whomsoever it might. Referring to the gentleman from Person in his sarcastic and ridiculing remarks as to himself and other gentlemen on this floor, he wished to ask of that distinguished gentleman for even daring to entertain any views of this subject or any other without first hearing from him.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The hour for the special order having arrived, being House bill No. 1. (The sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad,) it was taken up.

The question recurring upon the adoption of the substitute upon its second reading.

Davis, of Madison, first addressed himself to the subject in a few timely remarks. He said his people were in favor of the sale of the road and had instructed him to sell on the best conditions, and if you can't sell it; give it away to some one who will complete it. To kill this bill would be to kill the best interest of Western North Carolina.

Covington, merely wished to explain his position. He spoke of several amendments he desired to make; among the amendments he had desired to make, was one to prevent the changing of the gauge of the road.

Covington opposed the bill; but he explained his objections and no one believes but that he was honest in his objection. Mr. Covington is a young man of ability and will make his mark in the political field.

Carter, of Buncombe, next addressed the House. He said:

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, urged the passage of the bill on its third reading. He did not propose to enter into an elaborate discussion of the bill on its merits. He desired simply to notice one or two objections that had been made to the bill. Gentlemen seemed afraid the Ducktown line would never be built under this bill. This point was pressed principally by those who had always refused to aid in the construction of that line—by gentlemen, most of whom would now refuse to appropriate a dollar to build it. He could not see why these gentlemen were so anxious for the completion of a line they did not want. But he denied that this bill contained no guarantees for the completion of that line. In his opinion, the guarantees were ample. He referred to sections of the bill providing these guarantees, and entered into an argument as to the legal construction of these sections. He said that whatever might be the proper construction of the bill, it was certain the people on the Ducktown line were willing to take the risk of the road being completed to Ducktown. Why should other people interfere to defeat the wishes of these people. He was constrained to oppose all amendments, for it was certain amendments would kill the bill. He preferred that the enemies of this great measure should fight it openly by direct means instead of trying to destroy it by indirection. He would not question the motives of gentlemen, but he could not understand why gentlemen would press amendments when it was so well known they could have but one effect—the killing of the bill. His people were looking anxiously to this Legislature for relief. They felt that the Western North Carolina Railroad would never be built by the State. The utterances of the public men and the public press indicate that no more taxes would be levied to build this road. Then what was to become of his great section? He begged the members to pause long before he took a step that would bring ruin upon it. If all the evil forebodings of gentleman should be realized, things would not be worse than they are now. It had not been questioned that Mr. Best and associates were quite able to build these roads. Why should it be doubted? They intend to do it—especially as the title can never vest in them unless they carry out their contract in good faith. They could make no money out of it except they complied with their contract, and it could not be doubted they wanted to make money by the transaction. He appealed to members to sell this road, get it out of politics, give the people rest from taxation, and save something with which to educate the children of the State. This would redound to the glory of the State and the happiness of the people.

Carter, of Buncombe, next offered an amendment correcting errors in substitute, which was adopted.

Covington here offered several amendments, among which was one prohibiting any change of gauge. Lost, as were several others.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the substitute of the Joint Committee as amended by Carter, of Buncombe; the ayes and nays were called, with the following result:

Ayes 89; nays 21.

Here is the vote:

In the affirmative:

Messrs. Ainis, Anderson, Angier, Audrey, Atkinson, Banner, Barringer, Battle, Bernard, Berry, Bingham, Blalock, Bonner, Bost, Brown of Mecklenburg, Bruce, Bryson, Burroughs, Cale, Carter of Buncombe, Carter of Yancey, Carter of Warren, Carroll, Carson, Cary, Click, Coon, Coffield, Colwell, Cooke, Council, Davis of Haywood, Davis of Madison, Dunstan, Ellison, English, Etheridge, Foard, Forbes, Foster, Fulcher, Gatling, Goldston, Grant, Harrell, Harrison, Henderson, Hewett, Hines, Hobbs, Horton, Huffstetler, Johnson, Lamb, Leach, Leatherwood, Lockhart, Mebane, Melson, Miller, Moore, McCorkle, McGehee, McLean, Newell Norment, Oliver, Orchard, Osborne, Paxton, Powers, Rawley, Reid of Macon, Reynolds, Richardson of Wake, Ritchey, Smith, Spruill, Taylor, Vann, Vaughan, Waddell, Wheeler, White, Wimberly, Woodhouse, Wynne, York and Young—ayes 89.

Bizzell, Brooks, Buchan, Chadwick, Christmas, Clarke, Covington, Davis of Catawba, Deans, Dixon, Dunn, Ewing, Ferrell, Foy, Lowry, Pettipher, Reid of McDowell, Richardson of Columbus Scott and Turner—nays 21.

After the vote was taken upon the railroad bill, as above recorded, Norment offered a bill "for the relief of the tax payers of North Carolina." Placed upon the calendar.

Woodhouse, from the committee on Engrossed Bills reported Senate Bill 9, House Bill 47, and House bill 151 as having been properly engrossed.

CALENDAR.

The calendar was again taken up here.

A bill to amend chapter 257, section 1, of the laws of 1879, was put upon its 2nd and 3rd readings; passed and ordered to be enrolled for ratification.

Several leaves of absence were here granted.

A resolution was offered providing for adjournment on to-day (Sat.) at 10 o'clock; calendar.

House Bill 113, creating a new township in the county of Gaston was taken from the calendar; amended by the representative of that county and passed as amended.

TURNER GETS OBSTROPEROUS.

Mr. Turner here rose, as he said, to a "question of personal privilege." He said he had been charged with stealing from the State Treasury; that the NEWS and other papers had "maligned" him, and that Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, had "intimated" (through a resolution introduced) that he, Turner, had blown up his Sentinel newspaper press to create public sympathy.

He went through a lengthy harrangue; was allowed additional time, through the courtesy of numerous members who yielded him their time, and after awhile was called to order by Speaker Moring. The Speaker wrapped him down several times, but he paid no heed. The Speaker finally ordered the doorkeeper to seat him, but he would not be seated, whereupon Speaker Moring addressed the House to the effect that he had gone as far as he, personally, wished, and asked what the pleasure of the House was.

Mr. Foard here introduced a resolution for the expulsion of the gentleman from Orange, Turner, and spoke to his resolution.

Several gentlemen here spoke to the resolution. Speaker Moring took the floor, (Mr. Cooke in the chair) and addressed a few remarks to the insinuations of Turner that he had "not been recognized sometimes," &c. He had acted as impartially as man could act, he thought, and had always appealed to the House to overrule any decision if they thought proper.

Turner got on again and gave his "prison life" in full, and his old speech, which has been "spoke" in everybody's presence a thousand times, was here repeated.

Mr. Foard thought if this body of assembled Legislators were to allow an obstreperous and unruly member to "take the House" and carry it where it would, instead of being governed by the rulings of your Speaker, he thought it high time to play quits.

The House here adjourned until 7:30 o'clock p. m.

HOUSE—NIGHT SESSION.

The Speaker called the House to order at 7:30 o'clock, according to adjournment from the morning session.

Messrs. Blocker and Lutterloh asked leave to record their votes on the passage of the railroad bill, passed at the morning session. Both voted I. [This makes the vote 91 to 21.

R. to sell to any other purchasers upon the same terms and conditions as proposed to Mr. Best, should he fail to comply with the contract; Best & Co. to have preference. Read three times, ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

Carter—A bill to settle the debts of the Western North Carolina Railroad. Calendar.

TURNER'S EXPULSION.

House Resolution No. 37, the resolution introduced by Mr. Foard, was here taken up. Turner was allowed to speak for half an hour over his time.

Covington offered a substitute providing for his arraignment before the Bar of the House, which was adopted, and after a great deal of discussion and interruptions by Turner, he was ordered to present himself before the Bar of the House to be censured by the Speaker, whereupon he took to his heels and walked out of the House. Foard then pressed his resolution for expulsion, which was carried with only about a half dozen dissenting voices.

Nowitzky was in the lobby and "lobbied" with the members in Turner's behalf. He had a remedy and tried to make the members believe his way, He told Speaker Moring that he ought to have called on him when Turner would get out of order and he would close him with some Indian tea; that would fetch him. But Turner wasn't dosed, so he was expelled.

Taylor thought Turner's intentions were all right, but that he didn't know when he was out of order. He thought the [illegible] Orange was certainly correct upon the subject of "rail roads and rings;" he or no "rings was certainly in one.

Mr. Turner, the [illegible] member from Orange, is no [illegible] longer a member of this body; he took upon himself [illegible] upon [illegible] nounced by the Speaker; Capt. C. M. Cooke, in the chair.

Mr. Bonner, much to his surprise, here got in a speech. He opposed the passage of the bill.

Dimsdale offered an amendment to the effect that the price on drinks be reduced 50 per cent. Lost.

The question then recurring upon the passage of the bill upon its second and third readings, it passed.

Lockhart moved to reconsider the vote and to lay that motion on the table. Carried.

S B 42, to incorporate the Granville Railroad was here taken up, pending the passage of which the House adjourned until ten o'clock to day.

Maine Elections.

Philadelphia Record.

Now that the smoke has had time to clear away it turns out that the results of the spring elections in Maine were by no means correctly reported by the partisan agents of the Associated Press. In 200 of 300 towns the Fusionists elected their candidates for municipal offices, besides making large gains on last year in Republican towns. Ellsworth, the home of ex-Congressman Eugene Hale, which last year elected him to the Legislature, now goes for the Fusionists. It is not at all improbable that that Maine is one of the doubtful States just now.

Rome Courier.

Senators Morgan of Alabama, and Gordon, of Georgia, are visiting their homes of a short absence from Washington. They both, have the confidence and respect of the people of theia States; and the democrats of the whole union feel that in the hands of such men the interests of the people are safe.

What I Saw in the Museum.

How many North Carolinians west of Goldsboro, for example, know what the famous North Carolina tea—the Yopon—looks like? And how many of those eastern people who have been familiar with it all their lives still labor under the delusion that it is the same as the Paraguay Tea, or brazilian Black Drink, or Mati? And how many people know the difference between these and the Chinese Tea? Well, for the first time in life, we saw the three side by side yesterday, in the Museum—a package of Mati leaves, a box of the cured Yopon, from Beaufort county, and a branch of the China tea, grown in Bertie county.

And here, too, we saw samples of the Iron Ores which the Professor brought back from Pittsburg the other day all found at one furnace,—from England, Ireland, Spain, Africa, Lake Superior and Missouri, 1,000 to 4,000 miles away. The Professor went over to tell the Pittsburghers about the great ore beds of middle and Western North Carolina, which they can reach in 400 miles, by completing their Pittsburg Southern Narrow-Gauge, which will enter the State in the valley of New River, in Ashe county, right in the midst of some of the finest iron ores in the world. This thing ought to be pushed.

And we saw another new thing under the sun—some sheets of magnificent wall paper faced with Mica, so that it glints as if faced with scales of silver. The Professor found a house in New York the other day manufacturing this paper, and getting their Mica from Japan, and he has sent them a sample from Wake county and ordered a barrel shipped to them from Mitchell. How the world leaves us out!

OUR CHARLOTTE LETTER.

THE LEGISLATURE AND THE WESTERN ROAD.

Senator Dortch and the News—Death of Dr. Everett—Other Charlotte News.

From our Charlotte Correspondent.

CHARLOTTE, March 25.—Strolling out the other morning, in the northern suburbs of this city, your correspondent came upon an enterprise and manufactory on a small scale. It is a Sassafras Oil Mill or Distillery, and is run by one John Jones, P. O. C., who rents it from its owner at the rate of three pounds sassafras oil per day. It is very small and humble, but yet it is novel and a few facts concerning it may interest some of your readers.

The capacity of his still is from 12 to 18 pounds oil each run, averaging 15; the length of time of run about 12 hours; price of oil when manufactured from 30 to 60 and 75 cents per lb; averaging 45c. The cost of run, including wood, four laborers (50c. per day,) two in woods to dig the roots, and two at the still to chop them up, &c., $2.50. After paying the three pounds rent from the 15 pounds run he has left 12 pounds of oil at 45 cents per lb. i. e., $5.40, which allows him to declare a dividend of about 150 per cent. each night, or in other words pay himself $3.00. He says he can easily make two good "darkey livings" out of it, and as soon as he is able to add another still to his establishment, shall consider himself on the road to fortune, or a plantation and good stock, as he expressed it. He finds ready sale by shipping, and says he could sell ten times as much as he can make. Leaving out the pecuniary benefit, he declares that breathing the sassafras odor continually is a great lengthener of days and promoter of health. When he first began to run it, he was very "weakly," being fifty-five years old, and had "a wheezing kind of cough like misery" in his throat and chest, which has now entirely disappeared and he is as hearty as can be. He states that his clothing becomes so permeated with the sassafras odor that whenever he enters a store some one of the clerks, not seeing him, sings out: "There comes old John Jones, I smell him." In fact he is perfectly deodorized. Here is a chance for some capitalist in bad health particularly if he is fond of perfuming himself.

POLITICAL.

The general impression up here is that the NEWS did perfectly right in its action on the Best bill.

The NEWS has reaped laurels in opposing and condemning an action liable to injure the interests of all the tax-payers of the State, even though it was one of its own party whose course it condemned, showing itself above mere party spirit.

It seems that the people of the county at large applaud Senator Alexander's action on the road law, and it is whispered that the gallant three hundred, were not the entire county but a mere minority.

The people are holding their breath in expectancy as to the action of the Legislature in regard to the sale of the Western North Carolina Railroad, they fear the unwillingness of a committee of twenty-five.

NEWSY.

It is reported on good authority that Mr. Arthur Butt, of this city, who exhibited his painting, "The Apocalyptic vision of St. Paul," in Raleigh not long since, has been offered $60,000 for it. He refused, and has started on a Southern tour of exhibition.

The Baptist congregation of Mr. Whitfield have started the foundation of a new church edifice. It will be on Tryon street, nearly opposite St. Philip's (Episcopal) and directly opposite the residence of Dr. Joseph Graham.

The cotton factory building is in rapid progress of erection, and before many moons wax and wane will be up and at work.

I suppose the grandest dry goods show ever in the State was at Wittkowsky & Baruch's opening on Monday. A perfect centennial on a small scale. They had an Italian string band discoursing the sweetest strains, while the ladies gazed, admired and longed, and it was as much as many of the younger girls could do to keep from dancing—the music was so enticing. They had a department representing every nation, and its goods most beautifully arranged. We overheard an enthusiastic gentleman exclaim: "Why bless you, it is perfectly grand. There's every nation represented—England, France, Scotch, and —and —and all the rest."

DEATH OF DR. EVERETT.

Yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock, a servant going to the room of Dr. W. S. Everett, found him dead, sitting in his chair in his night clothes. He had been sick all the day before, suffering from neuralgia in the head, arm and leg. He remarked to some one at the hotel that if the neuralgia reached his heart he would die. A post mortem was held, but no indications found to explain his death. It is believed that Dr. Everett came to his death from a species of heart disease, similar to neuralgia, to which he was subject.

Dr. Everett was a brother of Dr. Edgar Everett, of Raleigh, and has lived in Charlotte only a month or so, having formerly resided in Concord as a lawyer. At the time of his death he was a practicing dentist, and much respected. His untimely death is greatly mourned.

A State's Right Maintained.

The cause of Charity as represented in the world famed Charity Hospital, of New Orleans, was so ably defended by General G. T. Beauregard before the Congressional Committee on Post Office affairs that the constitutional right of the State of Louisiana to create and authorize The Louisiana State Lottery Company to have its monthly drawings without any interference was fully allowed, and the Post master General has directed all Postmasters to forward the letters, registered or otherwise, and postal orders to M A. Dauphin, at New Orleans, La., or some person at No. 319 Brodway, New York City, N. Y., and the next drawing will take place April 13th, when some one will get $79,000 for $2.

DAILY NEWS

SATURDAY, MARCH 27, 1880.

THE WORK IS DONE.

The people in North Carolina, through their General Assembly, have spoken in a voice that cannot be misunderstood. The bill for the sale of the W. N. C. Railroad passed its several readings on yesterday by majorities which its friends could hardly have anticipated. The vote in the House of Representatives was eighty-nine in the affirmative, twenty-one in the negative; in the Senate the vote was forty in the affirmative, five in the negative. We presume it will be reported from the committee on Enrolled Bills this morning and be promptly ratified. Thus ends the contest, one or two phases of which we propose to review briefly in a day or so. At present we only tender to the people of the State our felicitations upon the prospect of an early completion of the railroad, which more than all others has been a bone of contention in the State. The patience of our readers has been severely taxed by the prominence which has been given to the subject in our columns; but as we conceived it to be the vital issue in every respect, practical and political, we deemed it our paramount duty to neglect all other matters and to press the measure to a successful issue.

PROF. W. C. KERR.

The accomplished New York correspondent of Hale's Weekly, Mr. Edward J. Hale, is always keenly alive to everything which happens in New York affecting North Carolina or North Carolinians. In a recent letter he alludes to an explanation given by Prof. Kerr before a recent meeting of a Mineralogical Society, of the formation of a peculiar gold deposit, in the following terms:

"After several others had expressed their views, Professor W. C. Kerr, of North Carolina, related his observations among the gold bearing sands and rocks of North Carolina. He had seen silicified trunks of trees which had been dug from these deposits under circumstances as show that this substitution of quartz for other material is still going on. Professor Kerr also stated that gold-bearing sand is now being worked for the second and even for the third time, and with good results. This fact shows that the invisible atoms of gold which pervade a sand bank may be collected by their mutual attractions into visible grains, just as the snow in a cloud is collected into flakes during its fall to the earth. Professor Kerr was listened to, as always, with great respect, and it was generally agreed that his remarks had thrown much light on the beautiful but mysterious phenomonon before the Association."

THE EXPULSION OF MR. TURNER.

The gentleman from Orange has at last succeeded in having himself expelled from the House of Representatives. His conduct on yesterday morning was universally turbulent and unruly, even for Mr. Turner. When called to order by the Speaker he peremptorily declined to take his seat, and when the door-keeper at the Speaker's order went to compel obedience, he again refused, and seemed determined to have a personal scuffle upon the floor of the House. For this insubordination the resolution of expulsion was introduced by Mr. Foard, and its consideration made a special order for eight o'clock in the evening. The lobbies and galleries were crowded with spectators, and the entire scene was watched with intense interest. Mr. Covington offered as a substitute, a resolution declaring that the gentleman from Orange should be brought to the bar of the House to receive its censure for his insubordination. Mr. Turner took the floor for an hour and gave a circumstantial account of the occurrence of the morning—at least his version of the affair, and followed with his customary speech upon rings, the Speaker's "brute face," &c. The House was determined not to gratify Mr. Turner by expelling him, but Mr. Turner was equally determined to be expelled, and of course he had the power to force it.

Mr. Covington followed Mr. Turner, giving a clear version of the affair of the morning, expressing the kindest feelings toward Mr. Turner, and urging him to ask the pardon of the House for the disrespect shown to its authority.

The previous question was called by a large vote, whereupon Mr. Turner again attempted to speak, as he said, upon a question of personal privileges, and disregarded the order of the Speaker (Mr. Cooke being in the chair) to take his seat. He finally appealed from Mr. Cooke's decision, and upon the appeal the House unanimously sustained the decision of the chair. The substitute of Mr. Covington was then adopted. Just before the vote was taken Mr. Turner, seeing that his only possible chance of success in his desire for martyrdom was to defy the House again, left his seat and made his way down the middle aisle. When he was called up to the bar he had just reached the door on his way out, and he did not respond. The doorkeeper was then sent for Mr. Turner and reported that he had left the House and could not be brought before its bar. There was no possible alternative left the House, and Mr. Foard introduced a resolution of expulsion and called the previous question. The call was sustained, the temper of the House, its self-respect and its dignity was aroused, and by an overwhelming vote the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Turner had gained his point, and his cheap martyrdom was attained. To take the financial view of the transaction, Mr. Turner was careful not to force the expulsion until the extra session had almost expired, so that his loss of per diem was as small as possible.

Now it will be easy to say that the House ought not to have expelled Mr. Turner, but can any body suggest how it could have been avoided? They tried hard to keep from it, but Mr. Turner was determined to be a martyr and kept on defying the House until he succeeded.

We draw no trite moral from the

Within the ten years he has lost his place in the hearts of North Carolinians to an extent that would have been thought impossible. The News does not reciprocate Mr. Turner's feelings of enmity. Upon the contrary it remembers with admiration his bold struggle in 1869 and '70, and though his unfortunate financial dependence upon the railroad wreckers modified his independence, and makes us qualify our praise, yet upon the whole he did work in the State during 1870 which was of vital service to the people. His later efforts to destroy the party which he was partly instrumental in building up, shall never make us entirely forget his earlier labors.

The Pennsylvania Democratic Convention.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The anti-Tilden men here feel perfectly certain that they will have an overwhelming majority in the Democratic State Convention of Pennsylvania, and claim the vote of the State under the unit rule at Cincinnati with equal certainty. Of the 251 degegates that will compose the Harrisburg Convention, 153 have already been elected, leaving only 98 to be chosen. Of those elected 123 are anti-Tilden, and 30 for Tilden. Of the 98 to be elected it is regarded as certain by the friends of Senator Wallace that 45 will be against Tilden, and 13 for him. Then, giving Tilden all of the doubtful districts, the convention will stand 168 anti-Tilden to 83 Tilden. The probability, they add, after a close calculation, is that it will stand; Anti-Tilden, 188; Tilden, 63.

The Physical Paradox.

It has been said that "the blood is the source of life." It is as truly the source of disease and death. No life, that is to say, no healthy tissue can be generated from impure blood, no organ of the body can normally perform its functions when supplied with impure blood. The fluid that should carry life and health to every part, carries only weakness and disease. Blood is the source of life, only when it is pure. If it has become diseased, it must be cleaned by proper medication, else every pulsation of the human heart sends a wave of disease through the system. To cleanse the blood of all impurities use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Purgative Pellets, the most effectual alterative, tonic, and cathartic remedies yet discovered. They are especially efficient in scrofulous diseases.

No Poetry in Them.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The Southern merchants who were junketing in Cincinnati last week are a sordid, unpoetical lot. After enjoying a free ride over Cincinnati's costly railroad, and after eating the city's pork and beans, they have gone to Chicago to see if they can't get better bargains in spring merchandise.

It Has No Friends.

New York Times.

The statesmen who dare not touch the hem of the present tariff will find that the whole tissue is far from being regarded with reverence by the American people. The Republican party has everything to gain and nothing to lose by a courageous, temperate and well-considered reform of the specific abuses of the tariff.

Why Tilden is a Candidate.

Springfield Republican.

Tilden is unquestionably at present a candidate. His utterances to his friends and the services which he has asked of them leave no doubt upon this point, although he has not yet expressed himself explicitly. Every interest doubtful Republicans look on high authority that the "old man" has reached this decision because he believes that Grant is to be the Republican candidate and that he can be beaten.

CAUTION—Worthless imitations of my name are on the market.

F. H. HEARTT, Agent, Raleigh N. C

The Would-be Prince Imperial and the Would-be Emperor.

New York Sun.

Colonel Fred Grant made a nice exhibition of himself in the Mexican correspondence—for the accuracy of which we vouch—which appeared in our columns yesterday. Some friendly gentleman having ridden up near the carriage in which his father was being driven, he exclaimed:

If those people were in the States he would soon have them in the guard house.

And when General Grant asked what he should answer some friends who wanted simply his signature to a telegram announcing his own safe arrival, he was advised to tell them to "go to hell."

Sheridan, when he gave this advice, knew very well the man to whom he was giving it.

So many of the American people as want to be told by the officers of their own Government to "Go to hell," or to be put in a guard house, will not fail to vote for Grant and a third term.

Seriously, do Cameron and Conkling—each infamously to his own State—suppose that the American people will put up with anything of this kind?

The American people have already had too much of Grant.

The American people will have no empire, and they will have no third term!

Hancock's Little Boom.

Columbus Courier.

Hancock's friends are having their little boom now. Speaking of Hancock things work around strangely. In 1876 Colonel James P. Barr, of Pittsborough, was a Hancock man, and Senator Wallace was at heart for Tilden. Barr had his own way and Pennsylvania went solid for Hancock. This year the thing is reversed. Wallace seems to be on top and we may look for the key-stone State to send a Hancock delegation to Cincinnati.

Hayes Will Sign It.

New York Herald.

Mr. Hayes has expressed himself freely in conversation with friends concerning the action of the House of Representatives in regard to the election of marshals. Those with whom he has talked on the subject express entire confidence that he will sign the appropriation bill in which the amendment is contained, if it shall pass the Senate in the shape in which it left the House.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clear and wholesome skin and scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large size $1.00. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail 3 cents; three cakes, 7 cents.

THE untold miseries that result from indiscretion in early life may be alleviated and cured. Those who doubt this assertion should purchase the new medical work published by the PEABODY MEDICAL INSTITUTE, Boston, entitled THE SCIENCE OF LIFE; or SELF-PRESERVATION. Exhausted vitality, nervous and physical debility, or vitality impaired by the errors of youth or too close application to business, may be restored and manhood regained.

Two hundredth edition, revised and enlarged, just published. It is a standard medical work, the best in the English language, written by a physician of great experience, to whom was awarded a gold and jewelled medal by the National Medical Association. It contains beautiful and very expensive engravings. Three hundred pages, more than 50 valuable prescriptions for all forms of prevailing disease, the result of many years of extensive and special practice, either one of which is worth ten times the price of the book. Bound in French cloth; price only $1, sent by mail post-paid.

The London Lancet says: "No person should be without this valuable book. The author is a noble benefactor."

An illustrated sample sent to all on receipt of 6 cents for postage.

The author refers, by permission, to Jos. S. Fisher, president; W. L. P. Ingraham vice-president; W. Paine, M. D.; C. E. Gamut, M. D.; J. Dupuet, M. D.; E. S. Kline, M. D.; J. R. Holcomb, M. D.; N. SIDEWALK NOTES.

——Railroad!

——Revenue receipts $5,893 73.

——Eighty-nine to twenty-one.

——Two marriage licenses issued yesterday.

——The members are preparing to "take their speedy departure."

——A fertilizer license has been issued the Standard Fertilizer Co., of Boston

——Marriage licenses, unique and pretty, can be had at the NEWS job office.

——Mr. B. F. Moore has left on a trip to Mississippi. He will be absent some two months.

——Day after to-morrow is Easter Monday, and the different schools are to give holiday in consequence.

——Norwitzky wanted to dose Joe Turner with "Injun" Tea; but Joe wouldn't dose, so he was expelled from the House.

——The city registration books are now open at the Mayor's office. A new registration entire is required. Go ye and register!

——The congregation of the Second Presbyterian church expect to be able to occupy their new church edifice in about a month.

——The handsome residence on the corner of Person and Polk streets opposite Major J. C. Winder's is advertised for sale. For particulars apply at the NEWS office.

—— Lincke's ten pen alley and gymnasium continues to attract a large number of the gentlemen of this city who are interested in the development of their muscle assure us the enjoyment of the healthful exercise.

——Prof. Clinton a pianist from Savannah, Ga., has come to this city with a view of making it his home. He will be glad to take pupils on the piano, organ and the voice. He is stopping at the Exchange Hotel.

——Mr. Dimsdale, in explanation of his vote on the railroad bill in the House yesterday, made some eloquent remarks. He received the hearty applause of his fellow members.

——Amelia Linkham, the slayer of Ed. Hartman, was recently married at Florence, S. C., to a gentleman from below Charleston, who became interested in her case while she was in prison and opened a correspondence with her.

——The New North State rises up to say: Judge Merrimon is right. The holders of the bonds issued to pay for the stock in the W. N. C. Railroad have a statutory lien on that stock.

We go farther and lay down the following propositions, which we know are legally correct, and which are sustained by the deliberate opinion of some of the best railroad lawyers in the United States.

1. The railroad bonds sold Lancaster Brown & Co., to Hiram Sibley, were void.

2. The sale under the Clews mortgage was a nullity; and

3. The $850,000 of bonds secured by mortgage on the Western road are void, no matter who holds them.

So a radical editor is satisfied with the truth of Judge Merrimon's position, even if the General Assembly was not.

The Sick List.

Messrs. J. A Kelly and F. C. Christophers are improving. Mrs. C. B. Root is convalescent.

Drummers.

C. B. Day & Co., of Philadelphia, yesterday took out a drummers' license of the State Treasurer.

The Date of Adjournment.

A joint resolution has been passed in the Senate and House fixing Monday next at 12 m. as the day and hour they adjourn sine die.

Mr. Best to Speak.

Mr. Best the proposed purchaser of the Western Railroad will speak in the hall of the House of Representatives at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

That Rooster.

A dead rooster was yesterday seen hanging on the copper pickets surrounding the statue of Washington in the Capitol square, with this placard attached to him: "This cock was ring struck." Now wasn't that funny?

Feast of the Passover.

Our Jewish merchants closed their places of business last night to celebrate this Feast, which commemorates the escape of the Hebrews from Egypt.

Police Court.

One affray case and one drunk and down before His Honor the Mayor yesterday. The fisticuff cost the parties $7 25 each, and the drunk got 12 hours in the station house.

Personal.

Hon. A. S. Seymour is at the Yarboro. Colonel L. C. Jones, President of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad, is also in the city.

Out of Order.

Everybody seemed to be "out of order" in the House last night. The ladies in the galleries (and there were lots of 'em) even so far forgot themselves as to have to be "called to order."

Jailed.

Louis Whitehead, col., was committed to the tender mercies of the county jailer yesterday. He committed larceny in White Oak Township and was committed to jail by Justice G. G. Maynard, of that township.

Turner Obstreperous Again.

The Speaker ordered Turner, of Orange, to sit down, in the House yesterday, after being called to order, and he refused. He then ordered the doorkeeper to seat him and he still refused. Speaker Moring then asked what the pleasure of the House was, whereupon Mr. Foard, of Surry, introduced a resolution for his expulsion. See House Report on first page for "further particulars."

Mr. Leach's Remarks.

In reference to the King's Mountain Centennial appropriation, when it was before the Senate yesterday, Senator Leach said he was in favor of the appropriation; and voted with pleasure for it in committee room. It ought to pass, because only a few were those who fought in the battle, as well as that grand old hero whose memory we revered by him; who fought and bled and still fought on upon the storm-swept hills and mountains of King's Mountain. This money is to be a part of the sum to be used in placing there a monument of marble to commemorate their fame. It was a fight for liberty, the victory was a triumphant one, the result glorious. I call for the previous question."

This most excellent remedy is becoming more popular with our people every day. It is one of the few medicines that improves on acquaintance—the more one knows of it, the more its virtues are appreciated. Everybody who has given it a fair trial, speak well of it. Our druggists sell large quantities of it. People are not afraid to use a medicine that they know to be efficient for their ailments, and at the same time harmless in its nature. Read what is so aptly said of it, in another column of this paper. Truth is mighty and will prevail. feb27 tf

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him, gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience.

We call attention to the new advertisement of the North Carolina State Life Insurance Company. Popular in its plans of insurance, prompt in payment of its losses and investing its funds at home among our own people, this company deserves the patronage of all who would secure the protection of reliable and legitimate Life Insurance for their wives and children. A man can make no safer provision for the future support of those who are dependent upon his labor for present immunity from poverty and its attendant ills, than that which is so amply guaranteed by a policy in the North Carolina State Life.
